

To whom it may concern

Ireland Painters & their parent company Professional Property Maintenance Services Ltd have done several projects for myself & other professionals in my field, over the last number of years. I have gotten to know Martin & Joe very well in my dealings with them & find them & all their staff to be of the highest courteous manner & that their work standards speaks for itself.

I wouldn't hesitate recommending them to anybody to do other projects as I have already done in the recent past & will continue to do. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you wish to confirm any of the above.

Yours Sincerely
Catherine Meleady
